TOP NOTES

Curtis Knight recorded a natural hat trick in a span of 8:20 in the second quarter to bring Rochester back from a 3-0 deficit. After tonight, the veteran forward has 140 career goals, including 18 with the Knighthawks.

He also added three assists for a team-high six points.

Rookie forward Ryan Smith registered four assists on the night after being held scoreless in his professional debut last week.

Reigning Offensive Player of the Year Holden Cattoni finished with four points, including a hat trick of his own. His third goal of the game marked the 100th goal of his pro career.

Shawn Evans notched two assists, moving him within seven of 800 in his pro career. The two-time NLL MVP is on pace to become just the fifth player in league history to reach 800 career assists.

The duo of Cattoni and Evans remain the only two Knighthawks to record at least one point in all 14 of the franchise's games dating back to the 2019-20 season.

Rookie forward Charlie Bertrand scored once and added two assists. He now has five points (3+2) through his first two pro games.

Rochester outscored the Bandits 4-0 in the second quarter, marking the first time in franchise history the Knighthawks held an opponent scoreless in a quarter.
