TOP NOTES

Rochester's six goals in the opening frame were the most in a single quarter this season. Five different goal-scorers found the back of the net during the first quarter, including a pair from Turner Evans. It also marked the first time this season Rochester scored the first goal of the game.

Tonight's win was Rochester's first at home this season and snapped a season-long four-game skid. It also secured the season sweep over Albany, who the Knighthawks outscored 31-20 over the two-game season series.

Rochester held Albany scoreless in the third quarter, marking the second time this season the Knighthawks have kept an opponent off the board in a single quarter.

Shawn Evans recorded a team-high nine points on one goal and eight assists. His eight assists tie the franchise's single-game record previously set by Curtis Knight during the 2019-20 campaign.

Holden Cattoni recorded his second four-goal game of the season with a goal in each quarter. His only other four-goal performance also came against Albany back on Dec. 18. He's now scored at least one goal in all but one game this season and has multiple goals in five of his seven appearances.

Ryan Smith also scored a hat trick as part of a four-point game, giving him 23 points (10+13) on the season. After tonight, he's now third among all NLL rookies in goals and points through just seven games.
