TOP NOTES

Six different goal-scorers found the net for the Knighthawks, including two each from Ryan Smith and Thomas Hoggarth.

Smith has now scored at least one goal in seven straight games and has recorded a multi-point effort in 11 straight games dating back to Dec. 11 against Buffalo.

Smith's fourth-quarter goal was his sixth on the power-play this season, tying him with New York's Larson Sundown for the most among all NLL rookies in that category.

Smith also tied the Knighthawks' single-season franchise record with his sixth power-play goal, matching the previous mark set by Holden Cattoni during the 2019-20 season.

Curtis Knight led all Knighthawks with a team-high four points (1+3), with three coming in the second half.

Holden Cattoni finished with a team-high 15 shots on goal, coming up one short of the team's individual season-high (Shawn Evans, 16, Jan. 29 at Toronto).

Joel Watson made his third straight start, making 39 saves.

Rochester held Philadelphia scoreless in the third quarter, marking the third time this season the Knighthawks kept an opponent off the board during a single frame.
