TOP NOTES

Tonight's win snapped an eight-game skid for Rochester and also ended Calgary's five-game win streak, the longest in the NLL entering tonight. Rochester is now 2-0 all-time against Calgary.

It was Rochester's second win this season with at least an eight-goal margin of victory - the other being a 16-7 win over Albany on Dec. 18.

The Knighthawks outscored the reigning NLL champions 6-1 in the second quarter, which included a natural hat trick from forward Curtis Knight in a span of 8:53, marking his third of the season.

Tyler Biles scored his first professional goal in the second quarter and also added an assist later in the frame for his first multi-point game.

Matt Bennett scored his first goal of the season. He, too, notched an assist for a two-point night.

Goaltender Joel Watson earned his first career win after making a career-high 43 saves on 50 shots he faced.

Ryan Smith led all Knighthawks with four goals and five points tonight. He recorded his sixth hat trick of the season as well as his ninth multi-goal game over his last 11 outings.

Holden Cattoni recorded three points (1+2) to become the first Knighthawk this season to reach the 60-point mark.
