TOP NOTES

With four points (1+3) tonight, forward Connor Fields surpassed the 100-point mark for the second straight year, joining Joe Resertarits, a former Knighthawk in the previous organization, as the only two American-born players in league history to record 100 or more points in back-to-back seasons.

Fields also became just the fourth player this season to eclipse the 100-point plateau, joining Buffalo's Josh Byrne and Dhane Smith and New York's Jeff Teat.

Following tonight's performance, he ranks fourth in the NLL in goals (44) and points (101). He needs just seven more goals to capture his second straight season with 50 goals, 50 assists, 100 points and 130 loose ball recoveries.

Goaltender Doug Buchan made his first start as a Knighthawk and first since 2019 when he was a member of the Philadelphia Wings. He also became the third different netminder to earn a start this season for Rochester.

Ryan Lanchbury led all Knighthawks with five points, including his second hat trick of the season. Since being acquired by Rochester ahead of Week 2, Lanchbury has recorded multi-goal efforts in eight of his first 14 games this season.

Kyle Waters (2+2), Curtis Knight (1+2), Ryan Smith (2+0) and Turner Evans (0+2) all finished with multi-point nights. Knight needs just seven more points to reach 500 for his pro career.
