TOP NOTES

With today's win, the Knighthawks clinched the eighth and final playoff spot in the NLL, securing a postseason berth for the second straight year. It was also the first win in franchise history in seven games all-time against Philadelphia.

Rochester's six goals in the first quarter were the second-most by the team this season while the three goals-against were the fewest allowed in a single game in franchise history.

Connor Fields scored six of the Knighthawks' 10 first-half goals, including all four in the second quarter. Fields reached the 50-goal mark for the second straight season. Fields finished the season second in the NLL in goals (56) behind only New York's Jeff Teat and fourth in scoring with a franchise-record 120 points, surpassing the 112 he set last season. He closes the year with back-to-back campaigns with at least 50 goals and 60 assists while also being the only player in league history to record more than 100 points and 140 loose ball recoveries in consecutive seasons.

With a team-high 21 shots tonight, Fields set the single-season NLL shots record with 267. He also set the new franchise single-game record for goals with seven.

Ryan Lanchbury assisted on three of Rochester's first four goals, including two primary helpers, picking up his 100th pro point along the way. He finished the night with seven assists.

Taylor Jensen scored his first pro goal, opening the scoring 3:24 into the contest with assists from Dan Coates and Ethan O'Connor.
