TONIGHT'S GAME OVERVIEW

The Rochester Knighthawks begin their 2025 National Lacrosse League season tonight as they face off with the San Diego Seals. The game will be broadcast on ESPN2. The Knighthawks are coming off their third straight trip to the NLL Playoffs after winning a franchise-record tying 10 games. Forward Connor Fields made franchise history, becoming the first player in team history to win the NLL's Most Valuable Player Award. The Knighthawks will open their sixth season in 2025-26 under new leadership and vision.

PRESEASON RECAP

The Knighthawks went 1-2 through their three preseason games. Ryan Lanchbury led the team in goals (six), assists (10), and points. Thomas McConvey was second with 12 points, and Graydon Hogg was just behind him with five goals and five assists. Ryan Smith (4+4) and Clifford Gaston (5+3) added eight points apiece.

New Knighthawks

Rochester's 21-man active roster features 18 returners along with three new players in the mix and a new ownership group.

NEW FACES: The roster features forward Zed Williams, who was acquired on Aug. 21 from the Colorado Mammoth, as well as veteran transition man Jeremy Thompson. Lefty forward Nathan Grenon will also make his Knighthawks Debut in San Diego. The Knighthawks also signed four rookies, Mitchell Dunham, Gaston, Nathan Kapp, and Adam Thistlethwaite, to the practice squad.

NEW OWNERSHIP: On Aug. 5, the Seneca Nation, through its wholly-owned business subsidiary Seneca Holdings, LLC, purchased the Rochester Knighthawks, ensuring the franchise's future in the city. The Seneca Nation is a sovereign Native Nation and the largest of the Haudenosaunee, also known as the Iroquois Confederacy. The Seneca people have lived on the lands in what is today the western part of New York State for time immemorial, and have made countless contributions to the region's history, culture, and economy. Today, the Seneca Nation has more than 8,500 enrolled members, most of whom live on several distinct territories in Western New York.

Stepbrothers

It's a family feud in goal as stepbrothers Rylan Hartley (Rochester) and Chris Origlieri (San Diego) go head-to-head for the second time in their careers. Hartley won the March 29, 2025, showdown, 14-13, making 40 saves in the home victory. Origlieri stopped 46 shots in the loss.

Scouting the Seals

San Diego opened the season with a 16-13 road win against the Ottawa Black Bears on Nov. 29. Tre Leclair posted a team-leading five goals and eight points, while newcomers Corey Small (3+1) and Connor Robinson (1+3) both chipped in four points. Origlieri made 37 saves to earn the win. The contest will be San Diego's home opener and is the start of a three-game homestand.

Knighthawks Milestone Watch

- Zed Williams and Riley Hutchcraft will play in their 100th regular-season game on Dec. 14.
- Matt Gilray needs five games to reach 100, and seven points to reach the century mark.
- Dan Coates needs 11 assists for 100 in his career.
