TONIGHT'S GAME OVERVIEW

The Rochester Knighthawks are 2-0 as they travel to Ball Arena off of a bye week to start the New Year. Rochester is coming off their first home win under the new ownership of the Seneca Nation and currently sits atop the NLL as the only remaining undefeated team in the league. The Mammoth come in with just as much excitement despite their 1-2 record. During week five the Mammoth sent a bundle of picks to the Las Vegas Desert Dogs for Jack Hannah. The young righty forward is a star in both the NLL and the field game.

LAST TIME OUT

The Knighthawks topped the Philadelphia Wings 15-11 in their home opener. Connor Fields got into a groove at Segar & Sciortino Field as he notched five goals and six assists for the highest single-game output of any player this season. Ryan Lanchbury had a regular day in the office tallying seven assists to lead the team on the night. Rochester's transition game was powered by Jake Piseno with a hat trick. Rylan Hartley played the first 56:45 before dropping the gloves with Nick Damude. Riley Hutchcraft made four safes in the 3:15 of relief.

FIRST STARS

Despite only playing in two games through the first five weeks of the NLL season, the Knighthawks have done their best to bring eyes to the Flower City.

After the season-opener against San Diego it was Rylan Hartley, and his 59 save night, who was the NLL's first star of week 3. Following the Knighthawks win over the Wings, it was Connor Fields and his eleven points, named the first star of week 4.

ZED GOES BACK WEST

On Saturday, Zed Williams will make his return to Ball Arena. It will be his first time taking to that turf since February 21 last year against Las Vegas when he went out with injury. In four seasons with the Mammoth, Williams is 19-10 at Ball Arena in the regular season and 3-2 in the playoffs.

Williams has been finding his footing both with a new team and coming back from his Achilles injury. In the team's home opener he scored the first goal of the game and was key in the three-goal run that sealed the win in the third quarter.

PISENO ROYALE

Jake Piseno played the best game of his young NLL career in the team's home opener against the Philadelphia Wings. He posted his first career hat trick and an assist while leading the Knighthawks transition game. He also led the team and the game in loose-ball recoveries with nine, that is double his average from last season.

SCOUTING THE MAMMOTH

Colorado (1-2) is riding a two-game losing streak after suffering a 12-3 loss to the Georgia Swarm on Dec. 27. The dynamic duo of Will Malcolm and Ryan Lee has led the way offensively for Colorado. Malcolm has notched a team-leading 15 points (8+7) in three games, while Lee has collected 13 points (2+11). The Mammoth, who are averaging just over six goals per game, bolstered their offense by acquiring forward Jack Hannah from the Las Vegas Desert Dogs. As part of the deal, Colorado sent Las Vegas a 2026 first-round compensatory pick, a 2027 first-round pick, and a future second-round pick.

MILESTONE WATCH

- Brad Gillies is 10 LBs away from 500 regular season scoops in his career.
- Dan Coates needs 10 assists for 100 in his career.
- Connor Fields needs 13 points for 500 in his career.
- Matt Gilray needs six points to reach the century mark.
- Zed Williams needs 10 points to reach 300 in his career.
